Other Contributions to Instructional Programs

Selected Curriculum Development and Redesign

As Chair of the Curriculum Committee in 2020-21:

- Coordinated committee’s review of all courses in the first 2 years of the BSAS
- Surveyed faculty members’ perceptions of BSAS student preparation for junior and senior years of the curriculum.
- Initiated development of BSAS curricular framework to develop and related student learning outcomes for BSAS program and individual courses in key areas identified in coursework and faculty feedback evidence.
- Led committee efforts to revise first 4 design courses in the BSAS and develop a strategy for curricular integration in years 1 & 2.
- Participated in the ACSA’s Assessment Training workshop series to prepare curriculum for next NAAB Assessment.

As Chair of the Health and Well-being Program area from 2013-2016 and 2017-2021:

- Developed and taught new undergraduate courses, ARCH 171 and ARCH 321.
- Developed, coordinated 6-8 faculty-led sections, and taught ARCH 372, Design for Wellbeing.
- ARCH 321 designated elective for Bio-humanities certificate and Minor in Global Health.
- Developed and taught graduate elective ARCH 521.

- Developed and taught graduate research seminar ARCH 596.
- Sub-discipline specialist with Applied Health Sciences, coordinating graduate curricula in Environmental Design and Health; program marketing, recruitment, and cluster hires; Chancellor's Strategic Growth Initiative Grant ($574,000 for 2019-2023).
- Developed, ushered through U of I and IL Board of Higher Ed approvals, and implemented transcript-able MARCH Concentration in Health and Wellbeing.
- Developed, and currently ushering through U of I and IL Board of Higher Ed approvals, online Graduate Certification in Health and Wellbeing.

Chair of the PhD Programs in Architecture and Landscape Architecture, 1/2014-8/2016:

- Chaired joint ARCH/LA PhD Committee.
- Administered application review and admissions processes.
- Coordinated with UEOs (Landscape Arch. & Arch.) and PhD faculty to fund all PhD students.
- Coordinated and approved adviser and prelim and final examination committee assignments.
- Secondary adviser to 30 PhD students in both programs.
- Reviewed and approved requests for transfer credit and programs of study.
- School's link to the Graduate College: student annual progress reports; internal and external fellowship and funding applications, deadlines, and funding opportunities.
- School's departmental thesis and dissertation reviewer (reviewed, edited 3 dissertations/year).
- Developed, stewarded and received approval for ARCH598 – CPT Course for PhD students.

Graduate Programs and Studies, MARCH, and MS programs 8/2010-1/2013:

- Primary advisor for over 200 graduate students in the School of Architecture.
- School's link to the Graduate College.
- Departmental thesis and dissertation reviewer.
- Scheduling of all graduate courses and instruction.

MARCH Program Accreditation 2014-2015

- Author & Editor, NAAB Architectural Program Report.
- Liaison to NAAB and accreditation team, 2014-2015.

Revisions to the MARCH core curriculum, 2009-2010

- Developed MARCH required theory course ARCH 577 with Stallmeyer, Hinders & Armstrong.

Training and Supervising Teaching Assistants

2017-2019 ARCH 101/171. Train and supervise six Teaching Assistants to lead undergraduate Workshops (190+ freshman students), grade, help refine exercises, and oversee on-line discussion forum.
